Introduction

Editions of the MHCC Fact Book prior to 2013-2014 used enrollment figures based on the fourth week of fall term. The basic difference between fourth week and end-of-term is that the latter includes a relatively higher number of noncredit and continuing education students.

In 2013-2014 the fact book was redesigned and reformatted to provide an annual look with data being reported at the end of the school year. Relevant data are being stored in a single location to assure consistency in the analysis and reporting; comparisons to previous editions of the fact book may show inconsistencies. The design of this new version of the fact book includes:

- The graphic presentation of data, retained from the previous version. Virtually all data presented in the fact book now include a chart to graphically display the information.
- Annual data rather than a snap shot of the 4th week fall data. The data has been organized to provide a more logical flow. The current year's student demographics is followed by comparisons of these demographics to the four previous years. This is followed by enrollment trends data which looks at changes to enrollment over time. Annual enrollment and completions data is next. The fact book then reports statewide comparisons (MHCC compared to the sixteen other Oregon Community Colleges). Finally, Staffing Level data is presented.
- A consistent presentation. Where comparisons are made on annual data, the most recent data is compared to data from the previous four years. This provides the opportunity to see trends in the data. The presentation is consistent across all variables assessed.
- Where percentages are shown the total percent may not add up to 100% due to rounding.

MHCC District

The Mt. Hood Community College district encompasses an area of about 950 square miles with a population of more than 388,000. The district boundaries extend as far east as the lofty peak of Mt. Hood and to the Wasco County line, south into Clackamas County including the communities of Boring and Damascus and west into the city limits of Portland. The Columbia River from 33rd St. to Cascade Locks is the northern boundary. Included within this area are the high school districts of Centennial, Corbett, David Douglas, Gresham-Barlow, Oregon Trail, Parkrose, and Reynolds.
