Are there any new tools, applications, or standards the program should be teaching?

- * Since working Avanti Destinations I am continuously learning about geography (Europe in specific), social customs/norms, and customer service is a significant part of my job. I feel for my job in specific it would of been helpful to have better developed my geographical skills in school, which we did at the beginning of the 2-year course but some things were forgotten in-between then. It may have been helpful do so some sort of geography class towards the end of the course as well.
