Was there a specific course (or courses) you considered more valuable than others?

- * HE202, PSY235,HS111-112-113,PSY236,HS265,HS266
- * Class about boundaries was helpful, as well as the practice in group settings
- * Human development, my overseas internship, video taped counselling were among many teaching I enjoyed.
- * Theories courses, field of social welfare, Kathleen's diagnosis classes.
- * I would like to single out one class saying one was more valuable than the others....but they each carry the same weight in value.
- * Classes within the mental health program were always laid out nicely and were beneficial to me as I continue my education at Portland State University
- * Intro to social work, Labs, Psychopharmacology
- * The social work classes where we got to practice our interview skills. These really helped me in my life and my work at Gateway Domestic Violence Center.
- * The Human Development Classes were very valuable to me. I wish I had taken them before I had children. I wish it was a law that required everyone to take these classes prior to having children. Abnormal Psychology was another valuable class for me, as
- * Effective helper, case management, interviewing skills, trauma informed care, human development.
- * all classes were valuable
- * I would say that the classes that helped me the most were the psychology classes and the behavioral redirection that was taught were really useful for my current job working with people of different ages that have mental and physical disabilities those are
- * All courses were valuable and relevant to the program.
- * Any courses having to do with the psychology of people and yourself has been the most valuable to me. I learned how to understand my needs and other's needs in order to help myself and be a helper in my social life and my professional life.

Mental Health, Social Service and Addiction Counseling: Question 2

Are there any specific topics or subjects that the MHHS program did not cover?

- * I wish that there would have been an Addiction class every term. The first term there was the Pharmacology class, and there is an extraordinary amount of information for one term. Perhaps it could have been spread out in more detail over several or all
- * Disorders, case management, trauma informed care.
- * Tools for families members of the mental challenged,
- * N/A
- * Not sure, maybe it would've been more helpful to explore different professional areas and opportunities we could work in with the degree and certificates we graduated with.
- * No, I think I got more education then I would have gotten anywhere else. I am really happy with what I learned and how it is helping me in university.
- * I think more information in insurance coverage, different experiences at agencies
- * Grant writing was touched briefly, pharmacology was loaded but very important, ACE and trauma care
- * I feel like I would have been better prepared for PSU if we had spent more time discussing topics like oppression and privilege, marginalization of vulnerable populations and social justice in general.
- * I was satisfied
- * Diversity in local communities and inequality in race.
