Natural Resources Technology: Question 1

Are there new tools, applications, or standards that the NRT Program should address?

- * N/a
 - * N/A
 - * There is a new software called tree plotter that would be helpfully to learn in class
 - * I liked the inclusion of drone technology, although the aerial photography class for my year was a little disorganized.
- Loved the inclusion of the wood mizer for the harvesting class, maybe the most relevant thing I did to prepare for my current work.

* NA

- * Update the lasers. They work, but are bulky and not up to current standards.
- * The range finder I used while at MHCC was a very old version and it would have been nice to use a version that is actually being used in the industry.
- * more sawmillmore urban tree idmore arboriculture
- * No

Natural Resources Technology: Question 2

Is there anything else you would like to communicate with NRT Instructors?

- * Well done, what I came out of the program with was directly related to my own efforts, meaning I should've tried more but I still feel I learned a lot. You guys did a fantastic job and I'm very thankful.
- * I loved being a student, I felt not just that I was learning, but being a part of a group and able to freely ask questions. Students will always continue to learn and move vocations and the mixed background this degree offers helps a lot.
- * The staff were the best instructors I have ever experienced in a college setting, hands down.
- * Keep up the good work
- * One of my favorite aspects of the program was the 1 credit course, Current Issues. I have a permanent job now that deals in international timber markets and economies, I would love to have focused more on this area at MHCC, the instructor was very good.
- * I had a wonderful experience at MHCC in the National Resources program. Joan and Jason were two of the best teachers I've ever had, they both would take the time to help you whenever you needed it.
- * No
- * All in all i felt like the program was well organized. Some classes though felt like they should have been offered before others. for example, I feel like GIS could have been offered before Aerial Photos, due to the fact that GIS goes way more into detail
- * Learning GIS has been very useful. I am glad that I had an introduction to this during the program because I have had to use it a lot.
- * Great job, im really enjoying what i do.
- * Thank you so much for your patience and understanding!
