Was there a specific course (or courses) you considered more valuable than others?

- * The series of interviewing skills courses were very beneficial. They prepared me well for my internship, jobs, and the BSW program that I am in. The counseling theories courses taught me to look at situations from various perspectives.
- * Psychopharmacology Case management skills Basic counseling skills Group counseling skills Addictions
- * All theories focused classes, classes with population specific focus, and case management. These classes were skill based but layered with self-care skills and skills for personal success made them concrete.
- * Honestly I feel that all the courses taught are valuable in what I do daily. For example, the interviewing class was important because it teaches us about confidentiality but also when it is necessary to break confidentiality. I also found the group couns
- * The Interviewing Lab, HS11 & HS112 cultural class, hs113 Counseling theories hs225HS 226hs 291 The practicum experience was a huge benefit sw201
- * The interviewing skills were amazing classes and incredibly helpful along with the Diagnosis and Treatment and Theories classes. I am learning more in depth material now, but the classes gave me a definite foundation.
- * The whole program is very wisely structured (cannot pick one class, all of them were amazing). I feel lucky for having the MHCC MH learning experience at my belt. After the MHCC MH program i was completely disappointed in the PSU BSW program. The MHCC MH
- * Courses with interviewing and development were most helpful to me. Courses on mental health and drug and substance abuse were also amazing!

Mental Health, Social Service and Addiction Counseling: Question 2

Are there any specific topics or subjects that the MHHS program did not cover?

- * After graduating, I realized that having a separate course on trauma would be very beneficial. Trauma was mentioned in every class throughout the program, however, I would like to have gone into greater detail on trauma.
- * I class specifically for healthy personal and professional boundaries, coping skills, self-care, and burn out prevention.
- * Sexual orientation focused class Black and Chicano studies focused class Case study papers 4 pages (not including cover, abstract, reference page) End of semester research papers 6-8 pages (not including cover, abstract, reference page)
- * No, I can not think of what can be added.
- * More cultural classes.
- * I think requiring more papers APA format will help students prepare better for a 4-year degree.
- * For me it looks like veterans, first responders' suicides, and other populations stigmatized as "strong people" could have more space in the program. Some conflict resolution topics also could be beneficial to include. Basic civil leadership structur
- * It would have been beneficial if we would have gone more into ways to de-escalate clients.
